Life Drawing Studio Class

4 Wednesdays | May 10, 17, 24 and 31 | 1 – 4 p.m.

Develop skills to really see what is in front of you. Receive personalized professional instruction during this intensive drawing session open to adults at all levels of drawing experience. Each week you will draw from a clothed model, explore various dry media and participate in traditional class critique. Students will have the option to display a drawing in a class installation outside the classrooms in the lower level of the museum, mid-June through July.

Class Fee: $165 ($150 Harn members)

Visit harn.ufl.edu/join to become a free member.

Parking permits are provided. Participants are encouraged to bring a simple snack and water.

Supplies Fee: $39

Please see the list of supplies on the back of this sheet. You are not required to purchase the full list if you already own all or some of the supplies, or if you would like to purchase them elsewhere. Please add the total cost of the supplies you would like ordered to your check. Circle those supplies on this document or email eking@harn.ufl.edu with your order.

About the Instructor

Anita Giteck Drujon has devoted her life to the fine arts and has years of experience teaching individuals at all levels. Drujon earned an MFA from the University of Miami and a BFA from Massachusetts College of Art. In Massachusetts she founded The Arts Workshop, while maintaining her own studio. During the two years she lived in France, Drujon taught drawing and painting and exhibited in both Paris and Versailles. Upon moving to Florida, she served as an Adjunct Professor of Art at Broward Community College for eleven years, while also teaching at Florida Atlantic University and the Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale. She has exhibited extensively throughout the United States and her work is in numerous collections in the US and Europe. In 2001, New Times magazine selected Drujon as "Best Local Artist" for Broward and Palm Beach Counties.

Drujon comes highly qualified as an art instructor, as described by a colleague and past associate dean of Broward Community College, "Her enthusiasm for the discipline is cherished by those she teaches. She instills in them optimism and self-esteem, thus further enabling them to accept higher challenges..."
