Call to Artists
Portraits Competition

Submit your portrait photography, and you could see your image on display at the Harn Museum of Art during the upcoming exhibition, Hoppé Portraits: Society, Studio & Street Photographs 1909-1945.

Hoppé Portraits will be on view at the Harn Museum of Art June 23 – August 30, 2015 and showcases E.O. Hoppé’s images of a wide variety of people, including studio portraits of notable figures as well as common people going about their everyday lives as schoolchildren, waiters, postmen, circus performers, flower sellers and more. Together, these photographs documented British life in the early 1900s. See more images at http://harn.ufl.edu/exhibitions/hoppe

Inspired by Hoppé’s portrayal of his era through street photography, we invite you to submit your photographic portraits of life in the 2010s. Artists can enter in one of three categories – Teen, College, or General – depending on age/experience level. One image from each artist category will be selected by popular vote, and the three winners will be printed for display in the museum’s Bishop Study Center during the last two weeks of the exhibition (August 18 – 30).

All photographs entered will be shown on-screen in the Harn Museum of Art during Hoppé Portraits and will be posted to social media. Voting by the public will take place in person and via social media, June 23-July 23, 2015. Winners will be announced Friday, July 24, 2015.
