

Samuel P. Harn Museum of Art

Project Description Form

Staff contact name: Tongyun Yin, Cofrin Curator of Asian Art

Department: Curatorial

Title of Internship: Curatorial Asian Intern

Brief Description of Internship:

This internship offers opportunities for undergraduate or graduate students interested in gaining curatorial experience in an art museum setting. This intern will conduct research on the permanent collection, participate in new collection acquisitions and work on current or upcoming exhibition projects.

ONGOING Intern Project – offered every term.

Specific Duties:

- Conducting research on artists and artworks related to the museum's Asian art collection.
- Participating in the current or upcoming exhibition projects.
- Compiling object information and research materials for the collection database.

Hours per week: 8 - 10 hours

Qualifications Needed:

- Knowledge of Asian history, culture and art history preferred.
- Strong research and writing skills.
- Good organizational skills with attention to detail.
- Computer proficiency.
- Ability to commit required hours during museum operating hours, Monday through Friday, from 8 am to 5 pm.

Learning Objectives for Intern:

- Gain practical curatorial experience in the Asian arts and museum fields.
- Continue to develop research and writing skills in art history.
- Gain more in-depth knowledge on a select group of artists and artworks.
- Develop professional skills in exhibition research and development.