Staff Contact Name: Allysa Peyton, Assistant Curator of Asian Art, abrowne@harn.ufl.edu
Department: Curatorial
Title of Internship: Writer-in-Residence – Fall 2021

Brief Description of Internship:
The Writer-in-Residence program is a joint project between the Harn Museum of Art and Debora Greger, Poet-in-Residence. Writers-in-Residence write poetry and prose inspired by the museum's permanent collection. Exhibition-related projects involve research and object study, leading to original compositions. Other exhibition-related projects involve collaboration with the staff in the Education programs to produce materials for a Family Day or Museum Night.

Specific Duties:
• Write commissioned pieces about art on display. These works will be available for visitors to peruse.
• Produce creative writing copy for selected exhibitions and projects.
• Other duties, particular to future exhibitions, as needed.

Hours per week: 10 hours/week. One weekly meeting at the museum to discuss projects; other hours off-site.

Qualifications:
• Available 10 hours/wk. This will include 1 hour/week at the museum, 9 hours/week off-site developing written materials for projects.
• Creative writing experience.

Learning Objectives for Intern:
• Gain experience with ekphrastic writing and interpretation.
• Experience planning and writing custom materials for special exhibitions for a variety of audiences.
• Collaborate between museum departments.

Special Application Instructions for this Project:
• Applicants should submit a 4-page sample of creative writing--poetry, prose or a combination with their application
• Questions should be addressed to the Poet-in-Residence, Debora Greger, dgreger@ufl.edu.